Thursday, January 7. 1720.

London, January 7.

Yesterday arrived four Mails from Flanders and two from Holland.

Petersbourg, December 8.

TH E Czar is pretty well recovered of the Attack of a Cholick he had of late ; but as this is not the first time he has had the like Indispositions, he has thought fit to send to all the Provinces of his Dominions, a certain Regulation to be observed in case he should happen to die. The said Regulation is drawn up in the Form of a last Will, the Contents of which are said to be as follow : He establishes the Emperour and the King of France, Executors of his last Will ; he gives Instructions to the several Offices, who are to communicate every thing to the Czarina ; he appoints Admiral Count Apraxin Captain General of his Navy, and assigns to the several Generals their respective Posts, on Condition however not to undertake any thing without Orders from the Regency. It is said his Czarish Majesty orders in that Regulation, not to lay aside the Design of joyning the River Wolga with the the Lake Ladoga ; to strengthen the Fortifications of the Frontier Places, particularly of Wiburg, Petersbourg, Revel, and Kioff ; that all the Foreign Families who have settled in Russia, be confirmed in the Possession of their Privileges ; and lastly, that after the Czar's Death, the Governours of the several Provinces of his Dominions shall be acquainted who is the Prince that shall succeed him on the Throne.

Dantzick, Dec. 30. We hear from Warsaw, that the Palatine of Mazovia is set out for Petersbourg, by express Order of the King of Poland, taking the Route of Tykoczin.

Vienna, Dec. 27. An Express has been dispatched for Constantinople, with Orders to Count Virmond, the Imperial Ambassador, to regulate with the Porte his Departure from thence, and the Departure of the Turkish Ambassador from hence, so that it is reckoned the two Ambassadors will be exchanged on the Frontiers in March next. M. Fleischman prepares to go to Constantinople to reside there in the Quality of Imperial Minister. The Differences between this Court and the Republick of Venice seem to augment. The Duke of Holstein has had Audience of the Emperour, and is now paying his Visits incognito under the Name of Count Rheinbeck and without Ceremony, to the Imperial Ministers, the Custom of this Court not allowing them to pay the first Visit to any Prince under the Dignity of Electoral Princes without expecting to have it returned : Which Ceremony was lately observed with relation to the Electoral Princes of Bavaria and Saxony.

Heidelberg, Jan. 3. On the 28th past the Express who was sent to Vienna with the Elector's Letter to the Emperour returned hither at length with an Answer, containing, that his Imperial Majesty finds the Subject of the Elector's Letter to be of such Weight, that he will search it to the Bottom and maturely consider of it, before he comes to a Resolution. The Elector has since advised several times with his Ministers, particularly on the 31st past in a Council, which lasted a good while, and to which besides his ordinary Ministers, were called four Jesuits, the President Baron Hilleheim, and Privy Councillour Becker. Their Resolutions are kept very private, but it too plainly appears, that the Reformed have no Reason to expect to be much favoured by this Court. The Protestant Inhabitants of the Town of Weinheim have complained, that they have filled up the Vacancies in their Magistrature in such a Manner, that now one half consists of Roman Catholicks, whereas according to their Constitution, one third Part of them were to be Lutherans, another Reformed, and but the third Part Roman Catholicks ; but they had for Answer, that his Electoral Highness thinks proper it should be so. This is the Case of many other Corporations in the Palatinate. This Day Baron Sickingen set out for Vienna. Some Days ago, Baron d'Ohrenberg, Minister of the Landgrave of Hesse Cassel, made by Word of Mouth a Declaration on the Part of his Master to the Electoral Ministers, the Substance of which is as follows :

That whereas the Intercessions made during some Time by the Protestant Powers at the Electoral Court, in Behalf of the Reformed in this Country, have been hitherto of no Effect, and that on the contrary, the Infractions of the Treaties, and the Religious Grievances continue and increase every Day ; his Highness the Landgrave of Hesse Cassel finds himself obliged, being required to it by the Protestant Body at Ratibon, to act in Concert in this Affair with their Britannick and Prussian Majesties, and their High Mightinesses the States General ; and that conformably to the Measures taken by the said Powers, his Highness has ordered the Roman Catholick Churches of St. Goar, Nasside, and Langen Schwalbach, in the Lower County of Catzenelbogen, to be shut up. The said Minister at the same time declared, that his Highness will restore those Churches, as soon as the Violences in the Palatinate shall cease, and the Reformed be re-established, in Conformity to the Treaties of Peace.

Paris, Jan. 10. The Importation of Pilchards from England, Scotland, Ireland, and other Countries thereon depending, has been permitted by an Arrêt of the King's Council of State, dated the 16th of December last, which Permission is to begin from the Date of the said Arrêt, and to last till the last of March next, on Condition of paying the ordinary Duties on Pilchards of the French Fishery ; after which Term, the former Arrêts against the Importation of Foreign Pilchards shall take Place again. The new Bank Bills to be made out to the Amount of 360 Millions, pursuant to the Arrêt of the 29th of December last, are to be of several Classes. The first Class is to consist of Bills of 10000 Livres, kept in 20 Registers, each of which is to contain 600 Bills, ten of the said Registers to be engraven, and the other ten printed, amounting together to 120 Millions. The second Class is to consist of Bills of 1000 Livres, kept in 94 Registers, of 800 Bills each, 80 of the said Registers to be engraved, and 14 printed, amounting in all to 155 Million 200000 Livres. The third third Class is to consist of Bills of 100 Livres, kept in 728 Registers of 1000 Bills each, 50 of which Registers shall be engraved, 678 printed, amounting together to 72 Millions 800000 Livres. The fourth Class is to consist of Bills of 10 Livres, in 1200 Registers of 1000 Bills each, which are all to be printed, amounting in all to 12 Millions. All which Sums together making 960 Millions, are added to the 740 Millions issued in former Bank Bills; and considering that this Sum, together with the current Species, may be sufficient for making a Circulation in the Kingdom, his Majesty declares that no more Bank Bills shall be made out.
